PROGRESS OF THE REBELLION.

VALENCIA, Oct. 15.

The government is making active preparations for the suppression of the Republican insurrectionary movement. Twelve thousand men of the regular army, with large pieces of artillery, are in position before this city. The insurgents, aware of the terror of this force, have retired to Murviedro, but the official authorities assert that all the officers commanding the insurgents, except Contreras, have left that place. The insurgent General Martin has received re-enforcements from Madrid, but declines to engage the government troops with the troops of his command, preferring to avoid a fratricidal conflict. Many Republicans are said to be willing to surrender.

MADRID, Oct. 15.

Affairs with the rebels at Valencia are unchanged. A brief delay has been granted, during which time fixed within which they may submit and receive full pardon, but it is said that after the time has expired their lives will be forfeited.

The Times to-day, commenting on the situation in France, says: "The jealous and inconsistent policy which has been pursued by the French Empire at the same time exceeds our comprehension. It has made the Empire odious, and it has done it in the pettiest way the discussion of public affairs is made by agents. The press is muzzled, and there is no hope for the freedom of speech. If anything is likely to be fatal to France and to the dynasty of its ruler, it is purposeless silence of the capacities of a ruling race, and the never-ending delaying with the forms of institutions to invest the people with the control of their own affairs. WASHINGTON, D. C., Oct. 15.

TO AGRICULTURAL IMPLEMENT MANUFACTURERS.

General Capron, Commissioner of Agriculture, has received from Hon. Domingo M. Garro, Minister from the Argentine Republic, that a large exhibition of agricultural and mining implements, from American manufacturers, will be held at Cordova, in that republic, in April, 1870, to which the attention of agricultural implement manufacturers is invited. The Minister writes that as both the French and Santa Exposition have settled questions of the superiority on our reapers and mowers, as well as the smaller implements in daily use in those of all the nations, he is desirous that manufacturers in the United States should forward specimens of all their implements, as the agricultural and mining tools now used in South America are of a rude description; a large market may be opened there for those made in the United States, thus doing a good service to that country as well as benefiting manufacturers.

SOUTH AMERICAN PLANTS.

The President of the Argentine Agricultural Society writes to the Commissioner that he has sent, through the United States Consul at Rosario, a collection of seeds of fruit-native plants, comprising such as are useful in arts and medicine, as well as some showy ornamental ones; also a collection of a peculiar variety of potato.

The appointment of General Belknap as Secretary of War, and what is supposed to be that of Governor Jewell as Minister to Austria, will prove eminently satisfactory to the country. The President has also made many good selections for gathering for the Centura Exhibition a full collection of native woods of the provinces that will be represented there, to be sent to the Centennial Exhibition of 1876, to which the Argentine Republic is invited.

Consular receipts from October 1 to October 9, inclusive, were $4,870.50.

KNOXVILLE, Iowa, Oct. 15.

The members of the Knoxville City Rifles, a company organized in April, 1861, give a grand concert to-night to the first Captain of their company, Hon. Samuel Kirkwood, Governor of Iowa, General Belknap. Preparations have been made on a magnificent scale, and a large audience is sure to be in attendance. The Governor and General Belknap will address the meeting. The Governor's speech will be a powerful one, and added thereto the full recounting the nothing of progress over the close of the war. Finally, the General Belknap will be welcomed to the county by the Knoxville Cornet Band, which is to be addressed by Congress as to gain entrance to the Rebel States. Fourth Day of the Southern Commercial Convention.

Reports of Committees on River Improvements, Continuous Water Communication, Taxation, Etc.

Special Despatch to The Chicago Tribune.

LOUISVILLE, Ky., Oct. 15

The Southern Commercial Convention took hold of the work to-day as if they meant to get through within the year. Reports were called for and made with quickness and adopted generally with little or no debate.

SUNDOWN.

The only set speech made during the session was by Mr. Richards, of Dubuque, Iowa. It was a savory concoction, and, of course, touched the Southern heart. It was received with favor from the South, who are always accused by the sun-down of orgasm. He attempted, in a few sentences, to show that Iowa proved Republican. He failed in the attempt, but succeeded in showing that his professional facts were just no facts at all.

RIVER NAVIGATION.

Among the reports made and adopted, was that of the Committee on Improvement River Navigation and Canals. This report, as it was originally stated, consisted of the memorial presented to Congress by General Thomas, the report of the Committee of Conference, and the report of the Committee on Resolutions. The report was in accordance with instructions given him in the Second Commercial Convention, and was a most exhaustive document, made the report, and added thereto the full recounting the nothing of progress over the close of the war. Finally, the General Belknap will be welcomed to the county by the Knoxville Cornet Band, which is to be addressed by Congress as to gain entrance to the Rebel States. ADDRESS

TO THE

Nervous and Debilitated.

WHOSE SUFFERINGS HAVE BEEN

Protracted from Hidden Causes,

AND

Whose Cases Require Prompt Treatment

TO RENDER EXISTENCE DESIRABLE.

If you are suffering, or have suffered from involuntary discharges, what effect does it produce upon your mental health? Do you find weak, debilitated, easily tired? Does a little extra exertion produce palpitation of the heart? Does your brow, or ordinary colour, at your kitchen, frequently act out of order? Is your entire frame thrown little, softer, or lowly, or is it rosy or swollen? Or does a flush come over to the face? Or is a blackness at the bottom after to have stood awhile? Do you have quality of short breathing or dyspepsia? Are your bowels constipated? Do you have spells of fainting, or rushes of blood to the head? Is your memory failing off? Is your mind constantly dwelling upon this subject? Do you feel dull, forlorn, morbid, tired of society, or life? Do you wish to be left alone, to get away from everybody? Does any little thing make you start or tremble? Is your sleep broken or restless? Is the joy of your breast brilliant? The bloom on your cheek as bright? Do you express your business with the same energy? Do you feel as much confidence in yourself? Are your spirits dull and flagging, down in, fits of melancholy? If so, do not let it be productive self-reproach. Have you restless nights? Your back weak, your knees tired, and have but little appetite, and you attribute this to dyspepsia or lazy complaint?

Now, reader, self-abuse, combined with the fatally sweet, and sexual excess are well capable of producing a train more of the generative organs. The train of symptoms, when in perfect health, make the man. Did you think that these fatal, distant, energetic, preserving, successful business men are always those whose pulmonary organs are in perfect health? Has never been seen symptoms of failing vulnerability, of nervousness, of debilitation of the heart. Have any never looked they seemed confused in business; they don't become real and discouraged; they are always pale and prostrate in the company of ladies, and look you and those sights in the form—some of your downcast habits or any other cause some about them. I do not mean those who keep the organs inflamed by resorting to excess. These will not only ruin their constitutions, but also those dear to business with or not.

If no one or more, from badly exerted diseases, from the effects of self-abuse and excess, have brought about that state of weakness in those organs that has reduced the general system so much as to unfortunately every other disease—Misery, misery, paralysis, spinal affections and ills, and almost every other form of disease which the mentality is liable to, and the real cause of the trouble scarcely ever suspected, and have doctored by all but the right one.

A COLORED FAMILY residing at No. 164 Fourth avenue, in Pittsburgh, have had the privilege of purchasing a ticket for the drawing of prizes, which has been underway for the last week, and as a result have drawn the $10,000 prize. ON TUESDAY EVENING last a burglar of the name of Wilson was arrested in a house on Clark street, kept by Mrs. Brock McCabe, of this city, and lodged in the Central Station. Wilson was found in the house in company with a woman named Mary Ann Hall, who was also arrested and locked up in the station. Wilson was identified by Mrs. McCabe as the burglar who entered her house on Tuesday night, Sept. 21, and stole a gold watch and chain, a pair of gold bracelets, and other articles of jewelry, valued at $200. Wilson was also identified by Mrs. Dr. Brock McCabe, of this city, who had been in the employ of Mrs. Brock McCabe at the time the robbery was committed. Wilson was remanded to answer the charge in the Criminal Court of Cook county, where he will undoubtedly be convicted and sent to the Penitentiary.

The same thing will be done this year.

A MEETING of residents of Hyde Park and vicinity was held at the Briggs House last evening, for the purpose of organizing a Republican Club for the Fifth ward. W. F. A committee of organization was appointed, and the meeting adjourned to Monday evening next.

The Exchange is now open for the sale of the Fall and Winter stock, and a large assortment of goods for these seasons will be given away. Those wishing to purchase a bargain, or anything useful, should call at once, as the stock will be sold at a sacrifice. Remember the place, 148 West Lake street, between Wells and La Salle.

A GERMAN MAGICIAN, named George Gooch, is creating a sensation in Cincinnati. He has been boasting of what a powerful woman, although only a girl of fifteen years of age, he has had in his employ for the last two years. He has also been boasting that she attracted the attention of Colonel Forney, who was in Cincinnati a few days ago, and that he had a long talk with her. Forney denies the soft impeachment, and says he never saw the girl in his life.

CAPTAIN HARVEY, of the tug Mother, returned from Racine Tuesday evening, and reports that the tug Ida Hall, which was sunk by the Mother in that place, will probably go to pieces. A schooner is now lying on her, and the Ida Hall cannot be got out without the assistance of two tugs. The tug is now at Racine, and the Captain thinks that the Mother will be ready for work.

SOUTH TOWN during Monday night, the residence of Mr. Wm. Bross, Jr., on Prairie avenue, was entered and robbed of a watch and chain and other valuables. The thieves got in by the front window, which had been left open. The family were away attending Fanny Ives' real castle of Love, and not returning until late in the morning, found the house in disorder, and the thieves gone. Mr. Bross, Jr., was also robbed of his overcoat on the occasion of the ball given by the Young Men's Association.

The latter was locked up in the Central Station.
